

Hi folks,

My name is Helen, and I'm a member on the CMF Kenya Maasai team, together with the Barrons.

As you may have heard, Kenya is in a state of civil unrest as a result of the tensions surrounding the presidential elections that were held on December 27th, 2007. The tensions are not only between political parties and candidates, but more widespread, violent clashes between different tribal groups. It is a rather unstable time. Please pray for peace and restoration among the people of Kenya, and wisdom for the governmental leaders.

The Barrons live in Endoinyo Erinka, but they have been advised to drive to Nairobi to be together with the rest of the CMF Kenya team, in the event that conditions worsen in the country. Please join us in prayer for their family as they pack up their belongings and travel the long distance.

The team will continue to monitor the situation, discuss, and exercise caution. Please pray that God would guide us and protect us all.

Helen
